Leading British Consultancy Firm

As a leading British consultancy firm with overseas offices, Coates Global specializes in Citizenship by Investment programs. We work exclusively with clients eager to apply for second citizenship or other forms of investor visas, such as Golden Visa. This specialization allows us to dedicate all our resources, knowledge, and legal expertise to ensuring our clients achieve their preferred immigration outcomes.

Specializing in Only the Best Residency and Citizenship Programs

In recent years, there has been a significant increase in Golden Visa and Citizenship by Investment programs worldwide. However, not all these programs offer strong value for money. Coates Global recommends only the very best second citizenship and residency programs to our clients. If we believe our clients could benefit from another one of our programs, we let them know. Our clients trust and respect our professional advice, and they are looked after by one of our specialist lawyers.

100% Client Satisfaction

Our lawyers carefully consider your individual circumstances to devise the most successful investment strategy. From multinational companies and wealthy tycoons to celebrities and other individuals, Coates Global is proud to maintain a 100% client satisfaction record.
